Waether Tuesday: High 44, low 31 . . . Welcome to North Carolina's biggest booster, Editor Carl Goerch, of Raleigh, publisher of the State Magazine, who will be the guest speaker at the Ro'ary Ladies' Night program which starts tonight at 7 o'clock at Oak Hall. Editor Goerch was a charter member of the Washington, (N. C.) Rotary Club in 1920 when he was publisher of the newspaper there. He knows what a Rotary audience expects and as he knows North Carolina probably better than any other man, an appreciative audience will be present to hear him. Over 60 reservations had been made by Tuesday afternoon . . . A letter from Miss Gertrude A. L. Beck from Germany with a change of her Bulletin address to Armed Division, Apo. 742, care Postmaster, New York . . . Tryon high school basketball teams split with Edneyville at Edneyville Tuesday night. The boys won 26-17 and our girls lost 12 to 50 . . . Any old clothes to spare that they can wear? Send them to Jackson's store. Look at the window at the stuff other good neighbors have sent in . . .

BEEF CATTLE GROWERS MEET HERE THURSDAY

BY J. A. WILSON

The 4-H Club Foundation wants to start a beef cattle development and improvement program similar to that being carried on with dairy cattle. They want to meet with all the beef cattle growers in the county to get their ideas and cooperation in carrying out the program.

The problem they want you to help with is just what kind of a program to launch and how it can best be done. There are two possible ways to start. One is by placing feeder calves with 4-H club boys to feed out and the other is to place breeding heifers with club members with which to start a herd. Which one do you think is better? Or do you think both methods should be used? Be thinking about both of these plans and let us have your reaction at the meeting.

The meeting will be held at the Hotel Tryon (next to the new Town Hall tomorrow (Thursday), Jan. 24, at 12:30 noon. It will be a luncheon meeting and plates will be $1 each which each breeder is asked to pay for himself.

The directors of the Foundation are very anxious that every beef cattle grower in the county and any others interested be present. This is your opportunity to help develop your own industry in the county. It cannot be done without your cooperation and support. Many of you have asked why can't something be done to develop beef cattle like that being done with dairv calves? Now is our opportunity.
