

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor.

5c PER COPY

TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1946

Weather Thursday: High 61, low 41, rain .10. Almost a foot of rain, 11.63 inches, fell at Tryon during January, according to the U. S. Weather Bureau, and that was the most anywhere in the State. Now, we told you the weather was unusual, because the Weather Bureau has Tryon listed as the ideal dry climate for good health. That's why hundreds of people have been coming here for over 60 years. Sam Bingham who started coming to Tryon from Chicago 50 years ago, says it is the worst weather he has experienced here. So if any newcomers feel discouraged they may take heart from those who have been here longest. C. M. Howes, who came to Tryon from Maine over 50 years ago, says he suffered more from the heat in summer in Maine than he ever did in Tryon. Mrs. C. C. Curtis writing from Florida, says the weather there has been fine, but that she was coming home Monday, "Weather isn't everything to a Tryonite." Joel Derby was elected mayor of Tryon on Thursday night by the Boy Scout Troop No. 1. He will serve for one hour this afternoon at 4 o'clock as soon as Mayor F. P.

—Continued on Back Page—

RECREATION

The recreation program in Polk County is getting underway on a wide scale in the form of basketball. At least 200 people, young and middle aged are taking part in the basketball games represented by Tryon, Columbus, Saluda, Green Creek and Sunny View in Polk County and approximately 25 more from Landrum in Spartanburg County.

Some of the participants are so young that they are playing their first basketball games. Many of the players are returned service men who are enjoying their favorite pre-war sport with old friends. Some old teammates find themselves on opposite teams now and others find themselves against old opponents. The interest in the sport is keen and the spirit is wholesome.

In reporting the Adams-Millis Tryon game the other night the name of Ray Ward was omitted through an error. Ray is a former Saluda star and shot the winning points for Adams-Millis by breaking the tie with Tryon All Stars when the score was 17-17 after two play-off periods. These two teams will meet again Saturday night in Saluda; and Adams-Millis girls will play Saluda girls.

The Tryon-Columbus game on Wednesday was referred by Jack Melton, former local basketball star.

BASKETBALL TONIGHT

Tryon and Sunny View boys and girls basketball teams will play tonight at Tryon Gymnasium beginning at 7:30.