TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, FEB. 18TH, 1946

Weather Friday: High 50; low 30. Saturday high 55; low 22. Sunday high 69; low 28. . . . Tryon Boy Scouts took over the town for one hour Friday afternoon through courtesy of the town officials who gave their time and interest to help educate the young Scouts in the responsibilities of running any government. "Mayor" Joel Derby took charge and the first person brought to him for trial was the temporarily deposed Mayor F. P. Bacon, who was charged with irregular parking. The Scout Mayor found him guilty and fined him $100. Mr. Bacon has long served for years on the Town Council, twice in the State Senate and twice as mayor of Tryon, respected the spirit of the court and paid his fine which becomes his annual contribution to the Boy Scout Financial Campaign. The Scouts had a wonderful time being initiated into the operations of the town government. Town Manager Claude Smith was caught giving out erroneous information and he was fined $5 The 3rd and 4th grade singers of Stearns school will put on the program for J. M. Baker at Kiwanis Tuesday at 1 p. m. at Oak Hall hotel.
