

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor

6c PER COPY

TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, AUGUST 1, 1946

Weather Wednesday: High 80, low 65, rain .83. Rainfall for month of July 8.24 . . . A news dispatch from Washington, D. C., quotes Major Dan Boone's lawyer as saying that young Danny Boone has arrived home safe with his father. Mrs. Boone is returning to Tryon. ARMY: Bobby Dick, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Dick has been promoted to staff sergeant with the Port Command at Bremen, Germany. BUSINESS: Sears, Roebuck to build huge store on N. Tryon (in Charlotte). Property to cost over million dollars. INCIDENCE: Mrs. Herbert Beck from Chicago, who had a home in Tryon and one in Florida has just sold her Tryon house to Mr. and Mrs. Tracy of Florida who are also originally from Chicago. One can't walk up Trade Street from one end to the other in the day time without meeting somebody from Chicago GOVERNMENT: The attorney general has ruled that towns of less than 20,000 population are not authorized to have parking meters. Hendersonville has just installed some, and Tryon has been considering them. But Mr. McMullan says towns have power to rid

-----Continued on Back Page-----

AT ROTARY FRIDAY

Paul Culberson, Assistant County Agent will be in charge of the Tryon Rotary Club program Friday at 1 p. m. at Oak Hall.

BLOOD WANTED!

This is a call for donors of Type A Blood for a patient needing a transfusion at St. Luke's hospital. Volunteers are requested to please report to the hospital at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

REAL ESTATE DEAL

F. P. Bacon has bought from J. T. Green the Braezeal house in Columbus. Sale made through Bridgeman & Smith.

Brotherhood Meets Friday

The Tryon First Baptist Brotherhood members and their guests will meet Friday night at 6:30 at the church for picnic supper. It is a ladies' night event. If the weather permits the picnic will be held at Harmon Field. If not, the supper will be served in the dining room of the church.

New Assistant Home Agent

Miss Margaret Cline of Shelby, N. C., has arrived in Polk County to be assistant home agent in the office of Miss Gladys Hamrick, home agent. Miss Cline attended Mars Hill College and Eastern Carolina Teachers College, and has taught home economics for several years in the schools of Jones and Cleveland Counties. Like all newcomers to Tryon she is looking for a room or small apartment.