

PICNIC WEDNESDAY

The Methodist Church picnic will be held Wednesday at Harmon Field at 6 o'clock. Members will meet at the church at 5:45 and a way will be provided for those who do not have transportation.

Jim Moore of The Ballenger Co., is on his vacation, and he and Mrs. Moore are visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Moore at Columbia, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Newman spent the week-end at Sweetwater Valley, Tenn., where they took Mrs. Newman's mother, Mrs. Susan Hutcherson, who had been visiting them.

Mrs. L. K. Singley is visiting in Columbus, Ga., and Mr. Singley's sister, Mrs. L. H. Harvey of Sanford, Fla., is visiting him.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Owen have as guests, Mrs. Owen's mother, Mrs. J. P. Lawing, and her niece, Miss Patricia Lawing, and cousin, Miss Bertha Goodson, all of Lincoln.

CURB REPORTER

-----Continued from Page One-----
was good news in Friday's Bulletin to see a notice that Mrs. B. G. Henry would open her kindergarten school again this year. Many parents were so grateful for her work last year and were high in praise of her achievements. The way to keep a good thing is to support it enthusiastically in every way. World problems are almost beyond our reach but we can do wonders at home.

GREEN CREEK SCHOOL

-----Continued from Page One-----
Lala H. Ridings, Mrs. Edna D. Hines.

Mrs. W. H. Quinn is the new teacher on the staff. She is the wife of the Presbyterian minister of Sandy Plains.

Mrs. J. J. Heaney and children of Ardmore, Penna., are visiting her sister, James Fisher, and family.

NIGHT MUST FALL

A PSYCHOLOGICAL MURDER-MYSTERY

Presented by

THE LAKE SUMMIT PLAYHOUSE

"The Summer Theatre in the Mountains"

8 Miles South of Hendersonville—Just Off Route 25

AUGUST 6, 7, 8, 9, 10—Curtain 8:30

Matinee, Wednesday, 3:15

ADMISSION: $1.00, $1.50, $2.00

Ticket at Bowen Hotel, Hendersonville, N. C.; by writing Box 66, Flat Rock, N. C.; or at box office on night of performance.