

Miss Eleanor Henry has returned from the Baptist Girls Auxiliary Conference at Mars Hills College.

Bill Gamble, who has been at Montreat, arrived in Tryon today for a visit with his aunt, Miss Mary Gamble. He and his parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Gamble, will return to Charlotte Thursday.

Mrs. J. C. Daunoy of Baton Rouge, La., and Rhodes Guffy of Salisbury, Mrs. L. E. Gouffon, Knoxville, Tenn., are guests in Tryon.

Miss Virginia Henry has returned from a visit with relatives at Davidson and Kannapolis, and has as her guest, Miss Sara Ridenhour of Kannapolis.

Egyptian astronomers had advanced so far that they were able to device a calendar of 365 days 6,000 years ago.

Subscription to The Bulletin out of county, one year $4; in county, $3.

Guests at Mountain Home, in Saluda include: Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Hayden, and son, Edmund, Jr., of New Orleans; Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Kreamer and daughters, Norma Jean and Billy, of New Orleans; Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Steinback, Sr., and Miss Alice Steinback of Charlotte, N. C.

TWO HOUSES FOR SALE at Lynn: One five-room house and one four room. Apply to F. O. Cochran, Lynn.—Adv. p.

FOR SALE: As administrator, c.t.a. of estate of Louie A. McGinnis, deceased, am selling household articles, August 30th, at my house in Green Creek Township. Articles include 150-year-old clock, a good time-keeper. John R. Burgess, Administrator, c.t.a.—Advertisement 7, 74p.

ADVERTISERS who wish to place ads in The Spartanburg Herald or other out-of-town newspapers, please leave copy with Monte Dedman, local representative, Box 463, Tryon.—Adv.tf

Crushed Rock For Sale

Half-Inch Screened Limestone

FINE FOR DRIVEWAYS
OR CONCRETE

$3.25 ton Delivered.

Butler's Coal Yard