BOOZE ADVICE

The Sunday school lesson of Wm. T. Ellis recently had this very interesting sketch of the "Drinking Husband." It has a whimsical flavor, but packs a lot of common-sense:

"If you are a married man who absolutely must drink, start a saloon in your own home.

"Be the only customer, and you won't have to buy a license. Give your wife $2 to buy a gallon of moonshine whiskey. Remember, there are 60 glasses in a gallon.

"Buy your drinks from your wife. When the first gallon is gone, she will have eight dollars to deposit in the bank and two to start business again.

"If you should live ten years, continue to buy booze from her and then die with snakes in your shoes.

"She will have enough money to bury you respectably, bring up her children, buy a house and lot, marry a decent man and forget all about you!"—The State Magazine.
