TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, AUGUST 16TH, 1946

Weather Thursday: High 82, low 65 . . . Big news is the same. Byrnes and Russia still sparring with words, CIO, OPA and other members of the alphabet are sparring. The Jews in Palestine are clashing with the British . . . The Interstate Fair committee launches drive for new members. $9,000 is needed. Chas. J. Lynch is chairman of the drive for Polk County. He goes Aug. 23 to Camp Ton-A-Wandah where he will judge the horse show . . . The American Legion is sponsoring at Community Center at Rutherfordton . . . Tryon Theatre has been making some interior improvements. Attractive draperies hang in front of the screen and varied colored lights reflect a million tiny stars. When the movies begin the draperies are pulled aside automatically. Another addition to the comfort of the patrons is the installation of a ceiling exhaust fan to take out any stale air without creating a draft . . . Among those stating that they are willing to pay $10 for Mrs. Patton's Polk County History in book form are an architect, hotel man, army officer, realtor, newspaper man, doctor. The Henderson history will cost about $1,500 for 500 copies. Those

POLISH DIPLOMAT HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Michal Kwapiszewski were in Tryon today to visit Prince and Princess S. Czetwertynski. Mr. Kwapiszewski was formerly minister plenipotentiary counselor of the embassy of Poland in Washington. He worked with the late Paderewski and Woodrow Wilson in forming the Polish Republic. Mr. and Mrs. Kwapiszewski were enroute to Greensboro, Georgia for a visit. On account of a change in Polish governments since the war the Kwapiszewskis will remain in this country.

Eaton Funeral Saturday

Funeral services for Mrs. M. P. Eaton will be held Saturday at 3 p. m. at the Pentecostal Holiness Church with the Rev. M. J. Ross and the Rev. Mr. Morrow if Inman, officiating.

POLK COUNTY HISTORY

By Sadie S. Patton
(CHAP. XX)

The names associated with the laying off and establishing of streets and public lots in Columbus, taken with the early jury lists, provide a fair index of the early families who lived within the area of Polk County.

The list of men summoned as jurors for the first court after the county was re-established in 1855, was:

Wesley Edwards, John Littlejohn, R. Tallant, Terrell Walker, J. B. Pace, W. H. Owens, Stephen Cowart, William Metcalf, John Blackwell, David Hipp, Warren Sarruth, J. W. Hampton, Robert Liles, Joel Reel, J. W. Laughter, William Dimsdale, Thomas Mor-
