

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor

6c PER COPY

TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 1946

Weather Wednesday: High 75, low 61, rain .08; Thursday high 81, low 55 . . . President Truman wants England to permit 100,000 more Jews to enter Palestine. Molotov returns to Paris Peace table. West Coast shipping strike still on . . . 96,000 people killed in auto accidents last year . . . . Congressman A. L. Bulwinkle of Gastonia and his secretary, Chas. F. Gold, of Rutherfordton were visitors in Polk County Thursday

Friday. They were guests Thursday night at Melrose Lodge. Major Bulwinkle was making a hurried trip in the interest of the Democratic party at the request of party leaders. He visited Monroe Redden in Hendersonville, Polk County Chairman H. G. Laughter in Saluda and others in Tryon, Columbus and Mill Spring enroute to his home in Gastonia. The congressman said the newspaper headline writers made things look worse than they really were especially in regard to Russia. He said that if one would analyse the full text of the news stories that they would not be as the headlines make them. Congressman Bulwinkle is recognized as one of the most level headed men in the

Continued on Back Page

GREEN CREEK OFFICERS

The oncoming officers that were elected for the '46-'47 school term are as follows:

Senior Class: President, Margie Hall; vice-president, Florence Johnson; secretary and treasurer, Myrtle Scoggins.

Junior Class: President, Annie Bell Cudd; vice-president, Edna Mae Mahaffey; secretary and treasurer, Wanda Brammer.

Beta Club: President, J. T. Shehan; vice-president, Margie Hall; secretary, Wanda Brammer; treasurer, Imogene Horne.

The young girls of the church met at Mrs. Brown's and organized the "Green Creek G. As". The officers elected were: President, Marcella Paige; vice-president, Margie Hall; secretary and treasurer, Hazel Gosnell.

Andersons To Build Home

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Anderson have bought a building site in Gillette Woods in Glen Walden section, from W. M. Hester. They plan to build a home as soon as conditions permit.

No New Developments

Today at noon there were no new developments concerning the disappearance of little Kay Leonard from Tryon school on Thursday.

MASONS MEET MONDAY

Jeff L. Nelson Masonic Lodge will meet Monday at 8 o'clock regular communication for work in F. C. Degree.