

Benard S. McEntyre left this morning for Ft. Bragg, for his preinduction physical examination.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Brown of Miami, Arizona, were week-end guests of Mrs. Brown's sister, Mrs. A. L. Covington and family.

Open house was held at the home of Mrs. C. D. Davenport on Sunday. The occasion being to celebrate her 64th birthday. About 60 relatives and friends enjoyed a picnic supper from 5 to 7. Mrs. Davenport received many lovely and useful gifts.

Clarence Davenport of Raleigh spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Davenport.

Tryon Choral Club will meet tonight at 8 o'clock at Oak Hall. Between 50 and 60 music lovers are expected, says Dr. R. A. Lasset Smith, the director.

RUMMAGE SALE: W.S.C.S. will hold a rummage sale at the old town hall on Maple street, beginning at 9:30 Saturday, Sept. 14th. Those wishing to donate rummage may leave it at Butler's Coal office or phone Mrs. Marvin Brendall.—Adv. 9, 11c.

FOR SALE: Attractive homes from $6,000 to $40,000. Also fine farms and building sites. Manville, Karsten & Hoots, Real Estate, Insurance & Air Line Reservations. Phone 6.—Adv.

ASK YOUR GROCER
FOR IT

Miss Ella Foster has gone to Berea, Ky., for her third year at Berea College.

Chef's Best

POTATO SALAD

A time saver ... Just chill and serve ... It is delicious!

—AT—

FARTHING AND COVINGTON

"Fine Foods"

TRY ON

WINE!

Made From Tryon Grapes

SWEET and DRY

Produced By:

E. G. Vollmer

Tryon, North Carolina