

[Est. 1-31-28]

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

(Vol. 18—No. 164)

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor

6c PER COPY

TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, SEPT. 30TH, 1946

Weather Friday: High 83, low 51; Saturday high 80, low 54, rain .03; Sunday high 83, low 62 . . . J. H. Gibbs, one of the outstanding farm leaders of Polk County sends in his $20 membership in the Piedmont Interstate Fair. All these charter members will go down in the history of this section as pioneers in the agricultural development of Polk County. A district fair offers wider opportunities, more competition and inspiration to a larger number of young people. Everyone who is a producer of anything will appreciate the opportunity to exhibit his product at a first class fair. Lifetime memberships may be secured through Chas. J. Lynch by sending check for $20 . . . This week is National Newspaper Week. And newspapers all over the country are being urged to observe it by reminding the public of the importance of freedom of the press in general and of the service of a newspaper to its community and readers. Some people often forget what a free newspaper means. Last Friday The Bulletin published a page advertisement for the New Republican Club. Some people thought that was strange because

----- Continued on Back Page -----

Choral Practice Tonight

The Choral Club will practice tonight at 8 o'clock at the Tryon First Baptist Church.

KIWANIS TUESDAY

The Tryon Kiwanis Club will meet Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Oak Hall. Program in charge of Dr. John Z. Preston. Speaker will be Wilbur Stephens, athletic director Tryon school.

WSCS MEETS TUESDAY

The W. S. C. S. of the Tryon Methodist Church will meet Tuesday at 3:30 with Mrs. Milner Waters.

Polk County Legion Tuesday

Polk County Memorial Post American Legion and Auxiliary will meet Tuesday night at 8 o'clock in Columbus at the Court House. A talk by Donald Carr on the selection and training of war dogs, will be a feature.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

The Bulletin and numerous other friends extend best wishes today to Miss Louisa Pitkin in honor of her 96th birthday. Miss Pitkin is one of Tryon's most beloved citizens who is always keenly interested in everything for the welfare of community and county. She has given money, time, and much needed enthusiasm to various worthy causes. Last year at 95 she was calling for yarn with which to knit for the Red Cross. She is an example for all who desire to enjoy life to its fullest.