

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor

5c PER COPY

TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, OCTOBER 8TH, 1946

Weather Monday: High 75, low 51. . . . A lot of interest is being shown in the hurricane that is striking across Florida from Tampa area to Jacksonville. Fear is also felt over damage to orange and grapefruit groves . . . Rev. N. G. Bethea, retired supply, has been returned to the Tryon Methodist church for another year. Rev. George M. Schreyer is continued as student at Boston University; Rev. B. F. Barth, returned to Mill Spring and Rev. Bernard Fitzgerald goes to Saluda . . . St. Louis defeated Boston 3-0 to tie the second game of the World Series with Boston Red Sox . . . The German people themselves arrest Schacht, a Hitler leader who was freed by the International Court. He faces ten years in prison by the Germans. . . . Tryon and Spartanburg B Football teams will play at Harmon Field Thursday afternoon. . . . This coming Saturday will be the first of three Saturdays for new voters to register for the general election of Nov 5th. So, if you have become 21 since last election or have moved here the required length of time, you may register Saturday or on one of the following two Saturdays. This is Fire Prevention Week.

BUSINESS NEWS

F. P. Ballew, better known as "Rookie," who formerly operated the Rock Grill, has put up a new building near the entrance of Lake Lanier and will operate it as ROOK'S, specializing in steaks, chops, chicken, sandwiches, and cold drinks; and according to an ad in today's Bulletin will sell NO BEER, NO WINE, and not sorry about it.

Also in today's paper is an ad for the Red Bird Associates, an interior decorating association composed of Mrs. Caroline H. Hale and Mrs. Eleanor F. Jay, for the purpose of assisting those who wish to re-style their homes. Their headquarters are located in the Betty Sturgis Shop next to the Post Office.

Civic Theatre will present in person Arthur Smith and WBT Cracker-Jacks Wednesday, October 9th, in addition to the regular movie program.

Fred Arledge, who is advertising his apples in The Bulletin is shipping apples to distant cities. He gets $4 a bushel for them, but will pack them, and ship them to any address ordered, and customer just pays extra for the express.

Laurence Holmes, who is making a good start with his Tryon Block & Material Co., has aded a new thing, "Cinder Blocks" which are lighter and offer increased insulation, according to his new ad running in The Bulletin.

MEETING POSTPONED

The B. T. U. weiner roast which was to be held tonight has been postponed until Thursday night at the same time