TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1946

Weather Monday: High 73, low 48 . . . . There seems to be general rejoicing that the Tryon Garden Club is being revived today with a party at Oak Hall sun parlor beginning at 4 o'clock. . . . Mrs. M. O. Kelley, affectionately known by hundreds of friends as "Granny" Kelley, celebrated her 90th birthday Monday . . . The World Community Day sponsored by the United Council of Church Women will hold a luncheon meeting Thursday at 1 p. m. at Oak Hall hotel. Rev. William T. . . . Erskine Memorial Fellowship will meet on Wednesday night at the home of Miss Mae Irene Flentye . . . One fellow says we have to have higher wages to pay for the increases in prices that were caused by higher wages. A vicious circle for everybody except the fellow who learned to do without things he didn't need and who has a pig, a cow, a hen, and a garden. . . . Superintendent L. K. Singley said at the Boy Scout meeting Monday that the Tryon school library is one of the best school libraries in North Carolina . . . In the world news Berlin votes against Communism.
