

I. K. Watkins, who spent the fall at his Tryon home is returning Thursday to Pittsburgh.

Columbus school Hallowe'en Carnival will be held at Stearns school tonight.

H. G. Beard of Tryon and formerly of Beard Bros., Spartanburg, is now with J. O. Jones of Charlotte.

Baptist Brotherhood will meet Friday at 7 p. m. Elbert H. Arledge has charge of the program.

Wilbur O. Tonks, former Cleveland, O., banker, killed himself at his Hendersonville home Tuesday.

LOST: Light rimmed bifocal glasses. Please return to Betty Sturgis Shop or Phone 128.—Advertisement 30.

PIGS FOR SALE: In order to fatten the mothers, I am offering nine 6 weeks old Duroc Jersey pigs at $10 each. Delivery date Saturday morning 26th. First come—first served. J. H. Gibbs Mill Spring.—Adv. 25, 30.

Household and personal articles of all kinds, especially clothing, will be sold at the fall rummage sale of St. Agnes Guild, at the Parish House, Saturday, November 2, at 2 p. m.—Adv. 28, 30.

We Invite You to Visit Us for Your

BEAUTY NEEDS

We carry a complete line of
MONIQUE COSMETICS

WIL-MAR BEAUTY SALON

Bertha M. Bowlby

Over Owen's

Phone 127

BEGINNING NOVEMBER 4TH The Red Cross Office

Will Be

OPEN ONLY TUESDAY
AND SATURDAY

MORNINGS

From 9:00 to 1:00

MAE IRENE FLENTYE, Secretary