TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1946

Weather Thursday: High 84, low 61 . . . Here it is the first day of November and an 84 degree temperature. Maybe it's the election getting hot. President Truman enroute to Missouri to vote. The privilege of all eligible citizens. Nearly all price ceilings to be removed except rent by November 4th . . . N. C. Good Health Drive to begin November 9th. Wm. Spivey of Tryon is Polk County chairman . . . George E. Bell, J. P., is in Asheville today attending the Shriner's fall ceremonial . . . Tryon football team is also in Asheville to play Christ school . . . Skyland Textile Co., is the name of a new mill to be built at Hendersonville. Will employ over 200 persons . . . Chief of Police Walter L. Roach is gratified over the way Tryon's young people celebrated Hallowe'en. They all seemed to have a good time and no damage to property has been reported. When the Police Department and the Kids work together everybody has a good time . . . A number of people who listened to the Army-Duke football game and heard the radio announcer say that the Cadets put two of the Duke Co-Ed Cheerleaders on Army mules during the half period, wondered if
