REUNION AT RECTORS

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Rector were hosts Sunday at the first reunion of the Rector family in many years. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Rector, Sr., of St. Petersburg, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Raff and daughter, Linda Ray, of Spartanburg; Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Reynolds and daughters, Judith and Jane; Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Rector, Jr., and Miss Jennie Sue Rector, all of Tryon.

Mr. N. R. Rector, Sr., came to Tryon 20 years ago from Virginia when he bought the Home Laundry. Later he established Rector's Dry Cleaning Plant and made modern improvements from time to time. He bought a home on Lake Lanier and paved the way for other members of his family who have settled in this section. When the local bank was formed during the depression, he was one of the charter members of the board of directors, a charter member of the Kiwanis Club and an officer of the Methodist Church. A few years ago he retired and moved to St. Petersburg, Fla., but spends part of each year with members of his family in Tryon.

Circle No. 1 of the Tryon Methodist Church W.S.C.S., will meet Tuesday afternoon at 3 p. m. at the home of Mrs. L. F. Buchanan.

Mrs. John R. Dixon of New York City is a guest at Oak Hall for the winter.
