

Mrs. R. H. Millikin arrived in Tryon last week from Crescent Beach, S. C., for a visit with her daughters, Mrs. Ryan McCown and Miss Dot Miliikin.

Mrs. Lillian Mills Mosseller, a descendant of the Polk County Mills family, and designer of rugs, will have on display at Oak Hall on Tuesday, some rugs that she has designed especially for the Blue Door Decorators of Spartanburg. The rugs are all wool and hand woven. Mrs. Mosseller's rugs have received national attention and some are in the permanent collection of the Metropolitan Art Museum in New York.

"Peace costs. The hungry must be fed. Every second, every time your heart beats, one of 800,000,000 starving people overseas dies of hunger. At least 20,000,000 are children. The United Council of Church Women is sending help at this time especially to the children. Will you mail your check to the treasurer, Mrs. Fred. Owen? "A few cents given each time you eat will keep a hungry child alive."

FOR TRYON TOWNSHIP CONSTABLE

In the Tryon Township Constable Race, there are two men from which the voters may choose; one is Elmer Wilson, a Veteran of World War II, who spent over 30 months overseas. Mr. Wilson entered the service as a VOLUNTEER on Feb. 14, 1942, and served with distinction in the Medical Corps, Company Clerk, and at Guard Service.

The other candidate can not say that!

Candidate Wilson is a sober, industrious and clean candidate.

The other candidate has not made such a statement!

Elmer Wilson was born and reared in Polk County, and has never sought political office before.

He belongs to NO clic, ring or any one band or persons. He fights for what is right, for both the Republican and Democratic cause. He believes in the citizen's right—that is his reason for offering his services to the people of Tryon Township, and pledges upon his word that if elected, he will uphold the law and serve each individual with an unbiased and non-partisan service.

TUESDAY on the Township ticket, vote for ELMER G. WILSON, for Constable so that both Republicans and Democrats will have a constable to depend upon.

"He fought for you in the war; let him protect you at home!"
