TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, NOV. 22ND, 1946

Weather Thursday: High 57, low 33, rain .02 . . . John L. Lewis ordered to show cause why he should not be jailed for contempt of court . . . N. C. Labor Commissioner F. H. Shuford of Raleigh spoke in Charlotte today to the Carolina-Virginia Purchasing Agents convention and said that strikes had not caused as much shortages as accidents on and off job. A lot of production is held up for lack of steel which is in demand by so many other industries that are using steel more than ever. The textile industry has few exceptions in North Carolina, has been producing more than ever, but it is still hard to get sheets and shirts. There are buyers strikes, manufacturers strikes by those wanting higher prices for their products. So it is natural for seamen and others to strike to get higher prices for the only thing they have to sell—their labor. He said management and labor need each other. Nobody wants to strike because everybody loses. Workers lose pay, union lose dues and have to pay out benefits, managements and stockholders lose profits, and everybody suffers. "The Golden Rule
