

COLENA HILL IS WED TO PAUL SMITH

Miss Colena Estelle Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bynum J. Hill of Mills River, was married to Paul Thomas Smith of Tryon, son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Smith of Columbus, on Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Mount Gilead Baptist Church, Mills River. The Rev. H. D. Cohn, performed the double ring ceremony.

The church was lighted by candles and decorated with evergreens, holly and baskets of white gladiolus and candelabra holding lighted tapers.

Miss Mildred Fain, pianist of Hendersonville, and Fred Powell of Tryon, vocalist, presented a program of music. The candles were lighted by Miss Dorothy Hodges of Hodges, S. C., and Miss Evelyn Lanning of Arden.

The traditional wedding marches were used. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a suit of winter white wool with matching hat and carried a white Bible on which rested a purple orchid.

Miss Lavinia Green of Tryon, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a gray suit with black accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Miss Juanita Williams of Arden, was the bridesmaid. She wore a blue suit with a corsage of white carnations.

Clarence Smith of Tryon, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Thurston Arledge, P. C. Lancaster, brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Harold Newman and Byron Rector, all of Tryon.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The house was decorated with evergreens and the table was centered by a wedding cake.

Mrs. O. H. Fain, Mrs. Byron Rector and Miss Georgia Mae Fain assisted in serving.

The mother of the bride wore blue velvet with a corsage of red roses. The bridegroom's mother was unable to attend due to illness.

After the service the couple left by motor for Florida. For traveling the bride changed into a black gabardine suit with the orchid from her Bible. They will reside in Tryon.

The bride was educated in the Mills River High school and Western Carolina Teachers' college. She is now teaching in the Tryon school.

Mr. Smith was educated in Columbus and recently received his discharge from the U. S. Navy.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were: James Smith, Columbus, father of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Gosnell of Campobello, S. C., brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Green of Landrum, S. C., brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. P. C.
