TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, JAN. 9TH, 1947

Weather Wednesday: High 56, low 42, rain .04 . . . President Truman asks for lower prices, high taxes and fair wages in his message to Congress . . . Senate confirms nomination of General Marshall for Secretary of State, O. Max Gardner for Ambassador to England; W. Averell Harriman as Secretary of Commerce to succeed Henry Wallace, who had served as Secretary of Agriculture, and as Vice-President of the U. S., and wanted to be President . . . North Carolina State legislature gets underway with much heated discussions over rules and procedure . . . A lot of people are willing to give money to the development of the teen-age groups but not enough of them are willing to give their time. The presence of adults at young folks gatherings and the advice, counsel and encouragement in their projects counts as much as money. In organizing a Boy Scout Council at Belmont the other night Milton Craig of Gastonia said, "Scouting depends upon the attitude of the citizens of a community; the work must be done by laymen, not by paid leaders; if Boy Scout work is to be a success, all the people must participate; the Scout pro-

MRS. R. B. WHITE

Mrs. Mildred Sammons White, 43, wife of R. B. White, an executive of the Southern Mercery Company, passed away Wednesday night about 9:30 following an illness of several years.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed. There will be no service in Tryon. The funeral will be held at Goldsboro, N. C., her childhood home on Friday afternoon.

Besides her husband, Mrs. White is survived by two sons, Ben White, Jr., 16, and Wiley White, age 12; and her mother, Mrs. Mattie Sammons of Goldsboro.

Mrs. White was a member of the Presbyterian Church and before her illness was active in social and civic affairs in the community.

MRS. H. A. DANIEL

Mrs. Harriet Annie Daniel, 85, wife of the late Traynham Daniel, died Wednesday after a six-weeks' illness.

Born and reared in Spartanburg County, she was a daughter of the late William and Mary Foster Balenger.

She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Samuel L. Austin; six grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Friday at an hour to be announced with the Rev. James B. Neil officiating at the First Baptist church.

The Petty Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

MASONS MEET MONDAY

The Jeff L. Nelson Masonic Lodge will meet Monday night, January 13th, at 8 o'clock for work in the Master's Degree.
