

Cleveland, Ohio, Family Buys Homesite At Skyuka

Graves Taylor of Cleveland, O., has purchased through Tom Costa and Carter Wilkie Brown a tract of land in the restricted area of Skyuka Mountain between the Knoops and Dr. Placak. Mr. Taylor is a prominent public relations director of Cleveland. His family consists of himself, his wife and two children. They plan to build a home right away.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Carruth have returned from an extended visit in Cleveland, O., and East Aurora, Ill., where their granddaughter was born on Jan. 2, to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gilcher.

Furman University students coming home this week-end for recess between examinations include Miss Mary H. Flynn and Miss Mariel Derby of Tryon, and Misses Betty Jean Gibbs and Kathleen Pittman of Columbus.

Rev. Riley Roland will preach at the Freewill Baptist Church on Sunday morning, Feb. 2, at 11 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.—Adv. 30, 31.

Extra Bulletins 5c each at Office.

BUILDING PLOTS IN TOWN

Forest Lane

At head of Melrose Avenue. High, with gentle contour, trees, water, sewers and electricity

Acreage with views at edge of Town. Wilderness Road, hard wood trees, city water.

Prentice Luckey

(Owner)

CHARLES J. LYNCH

(Agent)

Bide-A-Wee

Dog Food

Horse Meat and Vegetables

Mixed by Home Recipe
Served Warm or Cold
With or Without Dry
Food

*No Waste ...
... No Trouble*

Approved by:

G. K. SMITH, DVM,
Spartanburg, S. C.

MAY BE PURCHASED AT

—THE—
BALLENGER COMPANY

"Better Values"

Phone 12 or 90

—or—

Bide-A-Wee
Dog Farm