ALL DOG SHOW RULES ANNOUNCED

Classes and fixtures for the 12th Annual Any and All Dog Show to be held at Harmon Field beginning at 2:30 Saturday afternoon, March 1, have been released as follows:

Judges for the show are Jerry Helder, Holland, Mich.; Mrs. Harmon Vanderhoef and Willie Sassoon of Tryon.

Judge for the working bird dogs is Ralph C. Erskine, Tryon.

The committee announced the following information in regard to entries in the show:

All the entries must be kept in hand on proper leash at all times during the show; the committee reserves the right to refuse an entry or disqualify any entry when in its judgment such entry will interfere with the proper conduct of the show; all dogs of any kind, bred, sex, size or age are eligible for entry; all exhibitors shall obey the orders of the judges.

There are 12 classes scheduled to be shown during the day's activities, as follows:

1. Grand parade.
2. Most obedient dog; to show response to commands.
3. Cleverest dog; tricks the dog can perform. (Personality to count).
4. Dog with the most original costume. (Costume to be furnished by the exhibitor).
5. Tail waggiest dog, (hard and fast wagging to be determined as winning point).
6. Working bird dog. (Dogs that have been worked in the field the past season. To be judged for conformation).
