

Vocational Training Exhibits, Style Show At P.-T. A. Thursday

Exhibits of articles made, an inspection of the school wood-working shop, and a talk on the accomplishments of the vocational training program at the Tryon school, will be one of the features of the Parent-Teacher Association meeting in the school auditorium on Thursday night at 8 o'clock.

Robert M. Foster, head of the vocational training, will be in charge of this feature, and will speak on the various phases and value of vocational training.

Mrs. Robert M. Foster, home economics teacher, will present a style show of dresses made by pupils; the girls modeling the dresses they made.

The meeting is being held in the evening this month, so that the fathers of the pupils may attend. A tea will be served after the meeting, by the following hostesses: Mesdames L. C. Reynolds, Homer Arledge, R. H. Brady, C. A. Martin, R. S. Jackson, J. A. Connell, Demos Chapman, Ebb Bishop, Robert Dedmond, Ralph Ford and B. B. Flynn.

COUNTY SEAT NEWS

Reported by Mrs. J. A. Feagan.

Grover Taylor is home for ten days from Oteen.

Bobby Ramsey is recuperating at his home here after a successful operation at St. Luke's hospital.

Little Skippy Skipper suffered an attack of pneumonia last week. He is now well on the road to recovery.

C. E. Blanton, Sr., is back at his place of business again, supervising, but taking it easy, as far as possible.

Misses Betty Jean Gibbs and Kathleen Pittman returned Wednesday to Furman University, having spent the Easter holidays at their homes here.

Bill McFarland of Lenoir-Rhyme spent the holidays with the Robert McFarlands.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Pittman and daughters, Kathleen and Ann, attended a re-union of the Wilson family at the home of Mrs. Pittman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wilson in the Sunny View section. All the family were present including in-laws and grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Prince Clarke recently visited Mrs. J. W. Newman at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. L. Smith, in Gaffney.

Mrs. Maggie Guffey is now visiting her daughter, Mrs. Earl Radford, in Marion.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Matthews and children of Detroit, have arrived for a few days with relatives in Henderson and Polk Counties.

Mrs. Barron White and children of Davidson, are visiting relatives here this week.

Mrs. H. W. Hill was guest of the Hugh Hills Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Head and family spent the week-end at Avondale.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Walker and sons of Estill, S. C., spent the week-end with the J. A. Feagans.

Mrs. Clarence Thompson, who has been for some time at Ft. Bragg with her husband, is expected to arrive today for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bowen Constance.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Brazeal of Brevard were down for the Easter service at the Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Caroline Bridges and Mr. and Mrs. Max Tessneer spent the week-end with Mrs. Forest Tessneer.

J. W. Forrester and family moved Wednesday to Spartanburg.

The Home Demonstration Club met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Edward Staggs, Mrs. Staggs was in charge of the very interesting program on "Family Life."

FOR RENT: Furnished apartment. Long lease preferred. Apply to Mrs. E. Pue-Williams, Phone 195-J.—Adv. 14, 16, 18c.

FOUND: Friday noon on Trade Street, green wallet. Owner may have same by giving proper identification and paying for ad at The Bulletin Office.—Adv't.