TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, APRIL 15TH, 1947

Weather Monday: High 73, low 53, rain 1.09 . . . . This section is really beautiful now. Nearly everything is coming out in bloom. Oldtimers as well as newcomers might profit by buying one of Fred Smith's guides to trails and roads in and around Tryon. They are on sale at Blue Ridge Weavers and the drug stores. If not, they are available at the Chamber of Commerce office for 25c each . . . . Commissioner John D. Finlay of the Game and Fish division, states that no fishing will be allowed in Green River from Lake Adger to the falls above Fish Top, a distance of 8 miles during the months of May and June because that part of the river has now been designated as a spawning area . . . . Another date to add to your list is the Lanier Club meeting for Thursday afternoon, April 17th. A good time to go and hear what has been accomplished by the club during the year . . . . In Landrum today at the Civic Theatre they are showing "Night and Day" in technicolor with Cary Grant and Alexis Smith. The Landrum Masonic Lodge also meets tonight . . . At Mill Spring the Farm Bureau
