TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, APRIL 22ND, 1947

Weather Monday: High 74, low 54, rain .12. . . . Tomorrow is the biggest day of the year for Polk County. It is the day of the Tryon Horse and Hound Show. It is big from the standpoint of attendance of people from all over the county and adjoining counties. It is big from number of participants in the shows; big from the numerous preparations made months ahead; big from the standpoint of cooperation from many public spirited citizens. It is really big from the standpoint of many people of diverse ideas to swallow prejudices and pet peeves and put their shoulders to the wheel to make the Tryon show one of the best of its kind in the nation. The Asheville Citizen-Times is sending a photographer to take pictures. Bobby Little is coming from Durham, N. C., to do the same thing. Associate Editor Charles O. Hearon, of the Spartanburg Herald. J. T. Fain, Jr., of the Hendersonville Times-News and a feature writer and photographer of the Spartanburg Herald will be among the out-of-town newspaper men present . . . . Tonight the annual Horse Show Dinner will be held at Sunnysdale at
