Teachers Are Named At Landrum School

Landrum, April 19.—Three high school teachers and 6 members of the elementary school faculty have been elected for the 1947-48 school year at Landrum.

Vacancies exist in social science, mathematics and agriculture at the high school while second and third grades reported vacancies in the elementary school.

High school teachers named are: Supt. W. D. Mitchell, James Turner and Mrs. Marjorie Callahan Littlefield.

In the elementary grades are: Principal W. C. Daniel, Jr., Mrs. Thelma Miller Daniel, Mrs. Lois Baldwin Jackson, Mrs. Cleo Blackwell, Mrs. Olivia Caldwell Jackson and Mrs. Faye Wright.—Spartanburg Herald.

Miss Alice M. Carruth has returned to Cleveland, O., after a visit with her brother, H. M. Carruth and family.
