THREE GIRL SCOUTS TO GET TOP AWARDS

Three Tryon girls, the Misses Anne Bowen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Bowen. Margo Hester, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Waverly M. Hester, and Aline Poole, daughter of Col. and Mrs. T. S. Poole, will receive the coveted Curved Bar at the Girl Scout and Brownies Court of Awards in the Tryon School auditorium at 8 o'clock this evening.

The Curved Bar is to the Girl Scout what the Eagle Badge is to the Boy Scout, and the Quartermaster Rating, to the Sea Scout. To earn a Curved Bar, the Girl Scout must be a First Class Scout and earn a minimum of 4 additional badges in an elected new field. The bar is worn above her First Class badge.

Tonight's candidates for this high honor are among some 30 Girl Scouts and Brownies who will receive awards at this Court.

The award emblems will be presented by Mrs. Grenville S. Sewall, of Rye, N. Y., who is in Tryon especially for the occasion.

Mrs. Sewall, a daughter-in-law of Dr. Charles G. Sewall, of Tryon, will also address the meeting on the national Girl Scout movement and its place in community activities. She is a member of the national field board, and of the national board of directors of the Girl Scouts. She is also Regional Chairman of the Hendrick Hudson District, which comprises the states of New York and New Jersey, the Panama Canal Zone and Puerto Rico.
