

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor

5c Per Copy

TRYON, N. C.,

THURSDAY, JUNE 19, 1947

Weather Wednesday: High 89, low 56, humidity 48 . . . Who in the north would dream that the thermometer ever dropped to 56 in Tryon in the middle of June? Just shows you have to live here to appreciate the cool nights and general all 'round good climate . . . A problem of interest to many people here is the parking situation. Some don't want parking meters. They say it will spoil the looks of Trade Street, will hurt Tryon, et cetera. One business man who says he is guilty of parking on Trade Street, is willing to have a rule for all business houses including owners and clerks to keep their cars off Trade Street parking spaces, and not have parking meters. The Curb Reporter is making a poll of this situation. What do you think? So far it is about 50-50 in opinion. Several clerks said they thought it would be all right and would be willing to pay 5c per hour for parking space. One shopper said finding a nickel would be an inconvenience sometime, and that she had always managed to find parking space. Another says what good would it do if the police don't enforce collection of parking meter

-----Continued on Back Page-----

SALUDA NEWS NOTES

Presbyterian, Baptist, and Methodist Church, Sunday school 10 a. m. Church service at 11 a. m. Evening service at 8, preceded by Young Peoples' meeting at Baptist and Presbyterian Churches. No evening service at Methodist. Sunday school only, at present, at the Episcopal Church, at 10 a. m.

Mrs. Henry Twiggs and her mother, Mrs. Lawson, arrived from Cuba on Wednesday and were joined by Henry, Jr., and his wife, who have been at Clemson College. Henry Twiggs, Sr., will not be able to have his usual long vacation at this time, giving place to his business associates who have been unable to have a vacation during the war years. He will come at the end of the summer to take his family back to Cuba. After a short visit in Saluda, Henry, Jr., will go to Camp Lee, Va., and his wife will remain with the family in Saluda.

Mrs. John Kohn and Miss Virginia Kohn came on Tuesday from Montgomery, Ala., to their summer home on Columbia Heights in Saluda.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Nabers and their sons, Alex and Sam, are at Melrose Cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Anglin of Blacksburg, S. C., visited friends in Saluda last week.

Miss Lillian Heroit is recovering from her illness of many weeks. She was able to pay a few neighborhood visits on Monday—much to the joy of the visited.

D. Bruce Salley of Saluda, now in the 11th Signal Service Battalion on Okinawa, midway between the Philippines and Japan,

-----Continued on Back Page-----