TRYON, N. C.,

TUESDAY, JUNE 24TH, 1947

Weather Monday: High 79, low 46, humidity 53 . . . The climate for Tryon in summer is nice most of the time, good for work; rest and play. That's why Commissioner of Banks Guerny P. Hood is having his conference of bank examiners meet here. One can have all the advantages of a resort without the noise and ballyhoo . . . The Senate overrode Truman's veto of the Labor Bill by vote of 68-25 . . . Some miners are striking in protest . . . Supreme Court says tidewater land between shore and three mile limit belongs to federal government and not states. . . . Opposition to parking meters growing steadily. One woman writes, "They would look out of place. I'm sure some of our citizens can make suggestions that will bring relief." A man shopper writes, "The only thing that will help is to have the business houses park their cars somewhere else. Some of them park their cars all day long on Trade Street." Another says if the policemen would mark the cars and the mayor enforce the parking laws there would be no trouble finding parking space. Two business women say they are in favor of meters;

Buy Tryon Beauty Shop

Mr. and Mrs. Yates Miller of Green's Creek have purchased the Tryon Beauty Shop from Mrs. H. C. Dominick, who is retiring on account of her ill health.

Mrs. Dominick has operated the beauty shop since 1936 when she succeeded Mrs. Vernon Hall. She states that she has served a large clientele and that it is with much regret that ill health forces her to sell.

Deputy Sheriff Ken Melton Buys New Homesite

Deputy Sheriff Ken Melton has bought from C. V. Elliott an acre lot at the intersection of Houston Road and the highway near Columbus. The deputy sheriff will build a home there for him and his family right away. The Meltons have a farm and home in Cooper's Gap, but the new homesite will place the deputy nearer the center of the county.
