

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor

5c Per Copy

TRYON, N. C.,

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 25, 1947

Weather Tuesday: High 82, low 47, humidity 48 . . . General Eisenhower named president of Columbia University in New York. He will take over when the President of the United States releases him from chief of staff job . . . Supreme Court action may halt coal strike. Ford auto foremen still on strike. . . . Vernon Stegge of Cooper's Gap, representing the 4-H Clubs and Grady Parker of Mill Spring, representing the Boy Scouts, were the Polk County American Legion delegates to the recent session of Boys State, held in Raleigh. This news failed to reach The Bulletin's time . . . One of the finest things a business man can do is to contribute to the churches or their causes—if he gives the money outright or in goods and services from his own supplies, but when he takes an advertisement on church fans or church bulletin boards (just to help the churches) he misses the mark. The main thing he does is to encourage a racket by schemers who charge a big price for their product; he makes it harder for fellow merchants who don't believe in that form of "help" to say "no". The Tryon Daily Bulletin gives FREE

-----Continued on Back Page-----

ROTARY TO INSTALL OFFICERS ON FRIDAY

The Tryon Rotary Club will have the installation of officers at its regular meeting on Friday. W. H. (Shorty) McDonald becomes president. Dr. Alexander Dye is the new vice-president and Col. Tom Poole will serve as secretary.

G. L. Houk, Franklin, N. C., attorney, has been invited to make the address and have charge of the installation. Mr. Houk is a past district governor of Rotary and is an accepted authority on the way a Rotary club should function.

L. K. Singley is the retiring president of the Tryon Club.

LEGION MEETS JULY 1

The Polk County Post of the American Legion will meet Tuesday, July 1, at the Court House in Columbus.

SOFTBALL NEWS

The Baptist won over the Firemen 11 to 10 Tuesday.

This afternoon at 4:30 the Blue Ridge Weavers play the Methodist, and at 6:30 the Rotarians will play the Kiwanians.

HAGUE HOUSE BOUGHT

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Wilson have bought the home of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Hague between school and Howard Streets. Sale made through E. G. Ballew.

Everybody interested in parking meters (for or against) are invited to meet with members of the Town Council tonight at 8 o'clock at the Town office.