

Desk Copy

(Est. 1-31-28)

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

(Vol. 20—No. 98)

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor

5c Per Copy

TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, JULY 1ST, 1947

Weather Monday: High 92, low 69, rain .36, humidity 73 . . . U. S. proposes United Nations police force of half million men to enforce peace . . . Russia refuses to join France, England and America in promoting Secretary Marshall's European Recovery plan . . . U. S. House of Representatives passes bill to accept Hawaii as 49th State. The Senate must approve it before it becomes law. If it does millions of U. S. flags will have to be changed to make room for a new star . . . Flood waters will roll down the Mississippi. Government turns the mines back to the owners. . . . Lake Summit Theatre opens tonight presenting "Dear Ruth" all this week through Saturday . . . The Tryon Community Planning Committee had its first meeting Monday night at the Town Office . . . A number of Tryon people went to Spartanburg to hear Admiral Byrd . . . Tryon stores will be closed Wednesday afternoon as usual and ALL DAY FRIDAY, July 4th. Wednesday morning and Thursday are the only shopping periods between today and Saturday morning. This is a time of celebration and the giving of thanks that we

Continued on Back Page

4-H Delegates To Attend 4-H Week In Raleigh

Delegates were selected from the County School Clubs by the 4-H'ers on a basis of past 4-H work, records, and natural leadership. The election took place this past week at recreation meetings in each of the County's Clubs. One boy and one girl will represent each of the Senior Clubs as follows:

Green Creek: Alvin Stott and Imogene Horne.

Mill Spring: Dan Jackson and Juanita Fowler.

Sunny View: Vernon Steppe and Iona Wilson.

Stearns (Columbus): Gerald Edwards and Polly Williams.

Saluda: Joe Raymond Stephenson and Jennie Arledge.

The transportation and part of the registration fee for each member will be paid by the 4-H County Council. This money was collected by sponsoring a square dance at Saluda by the county group.

Some of the activities of the 4-H Week will include demonstrations in project work. Tours of Raleigh, team demonstrations in methods of instruction, State Dress Revue, judging of livestock, and tours of State College and its facilities.—Paul Culberson, Farm Agent.

New Patients include Broadus Ford (treatment); Mrs. Jessie McCraw (tonsectomy), Mill Spring; Mrs. DeWitt Lawter (treatment), Route 1, Saluda; Miss Irene Greene (appendectomy), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Greene of Mill Spring. A daughter was born Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. Hulon Jackson of Mill Spring.