

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor

5c Per Copy

TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, JULY 10, 1947

Weather Wednesday: High 81, low 56, rain .31, humidity at 4 p. m. 100 Maybe those flying saucers have brought down this cold air. J. T. Green said it was down to 54 on his front porch this morning. No one remembers a colder July for this area. Smoke has been coming out of many chimneys The Firemen's softball game with Hendersonville Lions scheduled for today has been called off William M. Spivey had charge of the Tryon Kiwanis Club program Tuesday and read some interesting letters by Alexander W. Botts. Guests at the meeting included Prentice Luckey of the Community Planning Committee; John W. Cowan, Town Commissioner; T. Max Watson, Highway Commissioner; Hugh Noel, Highway Engineer, and Joe Mullen, State Utilities Commissioner George Dusenbury will be in charge of the Rotary Club program Friday at 1 p. m. Just what he will present has not been announced. Last week Life Magazine paid a compliment in an editorial on George and Jane Dusenbury's book, "How to Retire in Florida." The book is increasing in sales all over the nation, accord-

-----Continued on Back Page-----

COLUMBUS NEWS

Reported by Mrs. J. A. Feagan.

The V. F. W. had their regular meeting Tuesday evening at the court house here.

The Home Demonstration Club met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. John Gibson. A cooking demonstration, using the pressure sauce pan, was given by Miss Hamrick and Miss Cline. The central idea was "Foods for Better Health, Prepared with More Ease and Efficiency." There was a liberal serving for each member, which helped to emphasize the argument for the foods in question and the method of preparation.

Barry Hugh Staggs, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Edward Staggs, celebrated his third birthday Wednesday of last week with a party. Games were enjoyed by the 26 invited guests. He was the recipient of many nice gifts. Mrs. Staggs was assisted by Mrs. Wade Staggs of Landrum and Mrs. John Spurlin of Columbus. Ice cream and cookies were served.

Maxie Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Walker of Estill, S. C., had a tonsil operation at St. Luke's hospital Tuesday.

Guests in the home of the J. C. Gibsons last week-end were J. R. McGinn and family of High Point and H. B. McGinn and family of Spartanburg.

Miss Madelyn Phillips has returned from a vacation spent in Muskegon, Mich., with her brother, H. G. Phillips.

Mrs. Hart's mother, Mrs. T. A. Rhodes, is with her for an indefinite time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hardin and Miss Wynona Ormand of Forest

-----Continued on Back Page-----