TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, JULY 31, 1947

Weather Wednesday: High 94, low 62, humidity 36. That humidity reading makes the difference. Shows we had a dry heat and much more endurable than the steamy suffocating air in many places with the same degree of temperature . . . Douglas Chandler, American traitor who broadcast from Germany against the United States, was sentenced to life imprisonment. Russia still against United Nations. U. S. protests against Russia stealing other nations' property . . . The annual regatta on Lake Summit will be held at Camp Mondamin on Sunday at 3 p. m., says Director Frank Bell . . . Commenting on the progress of four summer theatres going full swing in Western North Carolina and including the Lake Summit Theatre an editorial in today's Asheville Citizen says: "The Citizen sees no reason why a vigorous summer theatre movement should not thrive in Western North Carolina. Climate and geography favor it. Ample patronage should be forthcoming from thousands of residents and visitors who are interested in dramatic expression for its cultural and entertainment values.
