

(Est. 1-31-28)

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

(Vol. 20—No. 150)

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor

5c Per Copy

TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, SEPT. 11, 1947

Weather Wednesday: High 85, low 69, humidity 64. Tryon inaugurated its zoning board of appeals just before the local building boom got underway. J. O. Safford is chairman of the board and Wm. M. Spivey is the secretary to whom appeals may be made concerning building restrictions and locations. Several have expressed the desire for some control over barking dogs and loud radios going at full blast long bed time. Well, winter will be here and closed windows will help the situation some. A white puppy was lying on the floor at Owen's Pharmacy Wednesday. A little boy came up and played with him affectionately. "That your dog?" asked the reporter. "No; he's a stray; but James Ballew claims him." Later the same dog was seen running along Grady Avenue with Donald Sizemore's boy. Young Sizemore said, "I think he is my dog and James Ballew says he is his. The dog stays part of the time at his home and part of the time at mine and follows us to school." He is a friendly little dog and likes to chase automobiles. If an auto

Continued on Back Page

TRYON CHORAL CLUB TO RESUME REHEARSALS

On Monday evening, September 22nd, the Tryon Choral Club will resume rehearsals for the opening concert of the season. As heretofore, rehearsals will be held in the First Baptist Church.

The policy of last season whereby club members purchased their own copies of music, will be abandoned. Music will be purchased by the club and will be loaned to the members.

In order that the correct amount of music may be ordered new members will please notify Miss Mary E. Gamble, secretary, the parts they sing, and all old members not expecting to return please notify her.—Contributed.

Polk 4-H'ers Display Six Junior Dairy Animals At WNC Fair, Hendersonville

Henry Deck's "Duke Power Amperage", was again junior champion and grand champion of the Guernsey breed, both in open classes and closed junior show.

He won first place at the Asheville show and repeated the performance at the Hendersonville WNC Fair.

Reba Wilson won the showmanship and fitting award for $25 first place. All Polk County animals were selected to compete in this class.

Alvin Stott's "Walcott Aurora", first place in 2 year old Jersey junior show; fifth place in open show.

Roy Jack's "Pierce Motor Acceleration", second place in 2 year

Continued on Back Page