TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, SEPT. 23RD, 1947

Weather Monday: High 81, low 65, rain .18, humidity 75 South Florida hit by another storm in the Fort Myers area. A first hand report from the first storm that hit New Orleans comes from Tryon friends, the Rev. and Mrs. Wm. S. Turner: "Today the sun is shining and the birds are singing but not so yesterday when we had the hurricane—then we saw enroute to our church—trees torn up by the roots, cars crushed by trees, signs blown down, windows broken, and a few frightened people who came to the church to avoid being by themselves in their own homes. We received both of our papers—morning and evening at our door. Who can say the press doesn't do its job? About 5 we left the church for home and found to our great joy everything intact, not even one leak. We hope to get to Tryon next summer. We had a wonderful trip out to Yellowstone Park but still think North Carolina has more to offer than any place we went on our trip." Father Turner is rector of Trinity Episcopal Church. Rev. and Mrs. C. L. McGavern are also at New Orleans The proceeds from the duplicate bridge tourna-
