TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, NOV. 14TH, 1947

Weather Thursday: High 63, low 30. . . Admiral Nimitz resigns as Navy head and is succeeded by Adm. Louis E. Denfeld. President Truman says our 20 billion dollar aid to Europe must come out of taxes. . . Riots and strikes in France and Italy. Things getting ripe for Russia to take over unless America does something; and Russia doesn't do much business with others except on her own terms.

A recent issue of the Char-Observer had a picture of Doris Helminger, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Helminger, formerly of Mill Spring who was elected "Miss Morganton" and represented Morganton at the Christmas festival in Charlotte November 12. 200,000 people witnessed the event. Miss Helminger is a former Sunny View school student. . . . The Tryon Parent-Teacher meeting for next Thursday has been changed from a night meeting on account of the post season football game with Union, S. C., which will be played Thursday night 'at Union.' This Tryon team is certainly getting the best backing ever given any local football team. When the Tigers played Hendersonville Wednesday
