

(Est. 1-31-28)

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

(Vol. 20—No. 210)

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor

5c Per Copy

TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, DEC. 4TH, 1947

Weather Wednesday: High 71, low 21 . . . Arrangements are being made for the Hendersonville Scouts to see the Freedom Train when it arrives in Spartanburg, December 12th. Any ideas for Tryon? It would pay for all Polk county schools to colse that day if transportation could be provided for students to visit the train. Brevard civic leaders are sending their football team to the Shrine Bowl in Charlotte. Tryon sport fans are inviting civic minded citizens here buy tickets for local players to Optimist Bowl in Asheville for the benefit of an underprivileged youth camp. Order for tickets may be left at The Bulletin office. Red Miller, Sports Editor of The Asheville Citizen, praises the Tryon idea of sending the home team to see the bowl games . . . Tryon fire alarm was given this morning on account of the woods being on fire at Kerrwood mountain near Lynn . . . French assembly votes to curb strikes . . . President Truman vacationing in Florida . . . $10.00 prize has been offered anyone in Polk County for the largest number of rat tails collected between now and end of the Rat Exterminating campaign

AT KIWANIS TUESDAY

Tryon and Rutherfordton Kiwanis Clubs held a joint ladies' night program Tuesday at Oak Hall hotel. A musical program was presented by Dr. R. A. Laslett Smith which included vocal solos by Mrs. N. L. Wilson and assembly singing by the two clubs.

Dr. Alexander V. Dye, retired diplomat, was the guest speaker and he gave an outline of the history and problems of the Palestine situation.

J. Frank Gallimore had charge of the program and introduced the speaker.

There were 110 present including the Lieutenant-Governor-Elect A. Fary Barber of Hendersonville and Mrs. Barber.

Tryon Basketball Team Named The Red Stars

The Tryon Community Basketball team has been formally named the Red Stars and will play the first game Saturday night at 7:30 at the Tryon gym with the Gastonia Athletic Club for the Deaf.

Equipment is needed for 12 men players and 10 girls. The teams have joined the Spartanburg County League and the Thermal Belt League and the players want to make a presentable showing in other communities. Officials of the local organization are soliciting donations from anyone wishing to have part in the success of the team. Contributions may be sent to Dr. Emil Smith or to Clyde Tharpe.