TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, DEC. 8TH, 1947

Weather Friday: High 68, low 42; Saturday high 67, low 41; Sunday high 66, low 34. The Midwest is having snow and ice as colder weather moves down from Canada . . . Nicholas Murray Butler, 85, noted educator and president of Columbia University, died of pneumonia Sunday . . .

Only three more days in which to buy tickets and send Tryon football players to the Optimist Bowl. Joe Derby and Bud Foster left today for Asheville where they will practice four hours daily in preparation for the event this Saturday at 1:30. Three of the players will be members of the Shrine team that played South Carolina All-Stars to a 7-7 tie in Charlotte last Saturday. An extra thousand seats are being built to take care of the crowd. Approximately 100 people expect to go from Tryon. C. M. Eargle has only a few tickets left and he is holding some of them for the benefit of civic minded persons who wish to help out an underprivileged boys' camp and at the same time give a treat to members of the Tryon team . . . M. E. Gambrell, Southern Bell Telephone Co., manager in this section states
