

(Est. 1-31-28)

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

(Vol. 21—No. 9)

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor

5c Per Copy

TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, FEB. 12TH, 1948

Weather Wednesday: High 36, low 27, rain .05 . . . The paper war between the U. S. and Russia continues with each calling the other liar. Most fights usually start with unpleasant words . . . Western North Carolina has had the worst weather in over 20 years. Buses from Asheville to Spartanburg and Charlotte did not run last night. All schools in the county are closed this week. Another cold wave is expected Friday. State Treasurer Chas. M. Johnson, and candidate for governor, advocates issuance of bonds to construct all-weather farm to market roads . . . A group of Hendersonville citizens have applied for a charter for a new bank . . . L. B. Prince and R. L. Whitmire are among the promoters . . . Brandon P. Hodges of Asheville has announced for state treasurer . . . Inflation seems to be over as food prices continue downward . . . 939 persons in North Carolina lost their drivers license during January for driving while drunk. A lot of people still don't believe that alcohol and gasoline won't mix well. They have to try it . . . The mayor of New York has heart trouble according to his doctor. And a campaign is now on for funds to fight

—Continued on Back Page—

SALUDA NEWS

By Miss R. E. Blatz

Saluda is in the middle of the third week of snow and ice. The streets and roads have been partially cleared but neither walking or riding is especially comfortable.

The Saluda Book Club met with Mrs. D. W. Pace on Tuesday. About a dozen members attended, making their way through snow, which in some places was from six to eight inches deep, on the level. The meeting was a specially pleasant one. Being a mid-winter session, there was a special program, beginning with a delightful dinner served by the hostess at 12 o'clock noon. After a short social period followed by the regular business meeting, Mrs. J. H. Clippard read from the Omnibus Book Magazine the article, "Modern Woman; the Lost Sex", which brought forth considerable comment.

There will be no service at the Episcopal Church on Sunday, except Sunday school at 10 a. m.

Mrs. D. J. Wilkinson and little son, David, of Asheville were guests of Mrs. Fred Pace last week.

The Booster's Club reports that there has been some inquiry about the purchase of land for a children's home in Saluda. It will require about 100 acres. The Boosters will be glad to hear from anyone who has land they would donate, or sell for a low price. Children from North and South Carolina would be eligible.

BASKETBALL TONIGHT

Tryon High School and Green Creek will play basketball tonight at Green Creek at 7:30. Tryon players will meet at the Tryon gym at 6 o'clock.