TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1948

The weather man lost his weather report today, a day of all days. It's just like spring outside, plenty of sunshine and the birds filling the air with their music. Some of the stores have already displayed their seed rack, and garden lovers have been looking them over and wondering if they could produce flowers and vegetables that look as good as the ones pictured on the packages . . . Just as Russia and Germany carried on a war in Spain for several years before war was declared, Russia is attempting to do the same thing with the U. S. in Korea where she has a large army congregated to take over the whole of Korea . . . Now that the rain has about stopped, it's time for Tryon to get a good clean up. The streets need to be washed. It's terribly dusty. If the town just had enough money in the treasury for cleaning and repairing a lot could be done. A lot of people have moved to Tryon in the past few years, but many have built outside the city limits and the local government gets no benefit from a taxation standpoint. The city council has a big problem on its hands because the town streets are in bad shape, too, and the colored school has no sewage disposal
