

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor

5c Per Copy

TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, MARCH 9TH, 1948

Weather Monday: High 71, low 32 . . . Gen. Douglas MacArthur and President Truman, both state that they will be available for President next term if wanted. Religious teaching in public schools held invalid. Italian leaders are afraid their country will be next on the list for Russia to grab. . . Detroit Free Press the other day had a two-column picture of Mrs. Frederick S. Ford and Author Margaret Culkin Banning and the following footnote: "Mrs. Frederick Ford, left, entertained at a luncheon Wednesday at the Detroit Club for Author Margaret Culkin Banning, a longtime neighbor at Tryon, N. C. Later the writer good-naturedly submitted to a stint of autographing for the guests." . . . Miss Mae Irene Flentye, of the Red Cross office says over $700 has come in so far on the campaign. Miss Emma McFarland was soliciting part of the business section Monday. Dr. C. E. Scarborough, public relations chairman, says "The Red Cross is the agency through which we do together things for needy humanity which we cannot do alone. It is your Red Cross. Keep it going by giving generously." . . . Spartanburg radio

Continued from Page One

County Basketball Results Played At Columbus

In the first round of the Polk County Basketball Tournament played at Columbus Monday night, Mill Spring girls defeated Green Creek girls. (Details not available).

The Tryon high girls won over a crippled Saluda high team 26-15, playing without the services of four of their regulars. Saluda put on a scrappy performance before bowing to the superior sharpshooters of Tryon.

Ann Pittman and Ruth Pace tied for scoring honors with 11 points each. Henderson of Saluda led her team with 9 counters. The lineup:

Tryon: F. Pittman 11; F. Ormand 2; F. Pace 11; G. Davis; G. Hines; G. Wilson. Subs, Edwards 2; Alewine, Newman, Chapman and Cromer.

Saluda: . Melton 4; F. Henderson 9; F. Emory 2; G. Whitaker; G. Arledge; G. Jones.

The Tryon high Tigers overcame a two-point deficit with three minutes to play to defeat Mill Spring boys 31-24.

The first quarter was strictly a defensive battle with Mill Spring leading 2 to 1 at its close. In the second quarter Smith of Mill Spring found the range and enabled Mill Spring to lead at half time 13 to 8. Tryon cut down Mill Spring's lead to two points at the end of the third quarter. Mill Spring held a 19-17 advantage. With three minutes to play in the game, Mill Spring led 23-21. Tryon then held Mill Spring to one more point while dropping 8 valuable points through the hoops.

Robert Barber nudged out Smith

Continued on Back Page