

SALUDA NEWS NOTES

By Mrs. Roy L. Johnson.

The Parent-Teachers Association will meet on October 14th at 3 p. m. Miss High Smith of Raleigh will be the speaker and will have a picture show free to the public. She will speak on being X-Rayed for tuberculosis in November when they will be in Saluda several days. All parents are especially expected to attend, who are interested in their children and their school.

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Miller attended a family reunion Sunday at the Fibre Company recreation grounds near Canton. Mrs. Miller's brother, C. E. Fisher, who lives in Altoona, Pa., came to Saluda with them Sunday and left for his home on Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. David Gavin of St. George, S. C., are at the Fairview House for a few days.

The Auxiliary meeting of the Presbyterian Church met with Mrs. Augusta Leland Tuesday. After the active meeting, a church supper was planned to be given soon.

Mrs. Laura S. Snyder was a delegate to the consecration of the Rev. Matthew George Henry, who was made bishop of the diocese of Western North Carolina at Trinity Episcopal Church in Asheville before returning home. Mrs. Snyder visited her son, John O. Darby, and family of Asheville.

Mrs. Burgess Johnson is in the Patton Memorial Hospital in Hendersonville and is reported recuperating nicely after an operation last week-end.
