

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor

5c Per Copy

TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, NOV. 4TH, 1948

Weather Wednesday: High 61, low 55, rain 3.75 . . . The Polk County Board of Elections started their meeting today at 11 a. m., in Columbus with chairman J. L. Rhodes, presiding. Official action will be taken concerning the trouble at Saluda, where some of the ballots were seized and thrown into a big stove and burned. Local politicians say they were Democrat ballots. A warrant has been sworn out for Ray Johnson charging him with interference in the election . . . The new county officers will take up their duties in December . . . The widespread Democratic victory for president, senate, congress and governorships seems to have been a big surprise to nearly everybody . . . The equipment for the new Tryon post office has arrived and has been installed. Postmaster G. I. Henderson is waiting for Inspector Helmick to come and make the official transfer. Everything in the building is new. There are about 200 more boxes available than in the present building, but Mr. Henderson states that over half of them have already been spoken for. He stated Wednesday that those desiring boxes should make application immediately. The new

Continued on Back Page

Mrs. William Gosnell

Mrs. Betty Foster Gosnell, 55, died at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at her home near Columbus where she was a life-long resident. Mrs. Gosnell was a member of the Gowansville, S. C., Baptist Church.

The deceased is survived by her husband, William Gosnell and three sisters, Mrs. Vince Foster, Columbus; Mrs. Emma Gosnell, Route 2, Landrum; and Mrs. Grace Cook, Route 1, Tryon.

Funeral services will be conducted this afternoon at 3 o'clock by the Rev. Silas H. Bradley at the Midway Baptist Church.

Oak Hall Hotel Bought By Cooksey and Edwards

George Dewey Cooksey and Miss Clara Edwards, operators of Hotel Canton, Canton, Ga., have purchased Oak Hall hotel from the Angie McLeod estate through a court sale to the highest bidder.

Mr. Cooksey and Miss Edwards formerly lived in Tryon and were in the office of the Tryon post office. They took over the Canton hotel three years ago and have operated it successfully according to all reports. It is the hotel for a city of 6,000 people and is considered the community center where men and women's civic clubs hold their meetings. Mr. Cooksey will continue as manager of the Canton hotel, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. George D. Cooksey, Jr.

Miss Edwards will be the manager of Oak Hall and will be assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cooksey and other members of the staff. Miss Edwards is a native of Polk County and is a sister of John L.

Continued on Back Page