TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1948

Weather Thursday: High 74, low 57. . . . Nearly everybody is trying to explain the election. One commentator says when you boil it all down and sift it, you find people don't want a change when they have prosperity. . . . The American Legion is pushing the program for a Junior Legion baseball team for Tryon; the basketball season starts soon with Tryon High School and town teams joining the other communities in this section. There is plenty of recreation here of nearly every kind except chess. Phil Windsor, who moved from Tryon to Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., said he couldn't find anybody here that played chess. . . . Many years ago the Curb Reporter was impressed by a poem that urged, "Give me the roses while I'm living and the knocking when I'm dead." giving out roses is going to be a part of The Bulletin's future program. And if that green-eyed monster looks, he'll just have to look. When the Kiwanis show, "Fun For You" named Miss Adelaide Dunning as the friendly "Good Good Neighbor," it made us all happy because we have been hearing of Miss Dunning's neighborly spirit for years and was glad friends recognized it publicly.
