Editor Daily Bulletin:

To those of your subscribers who were disappointed and shocked by the election results, and who fear the consequences, it might be well to remind them of the words of H. G. Wells "In the development of intellectual modesty lies the growth of statesmanship." If Truman will measure up to this high standard of leadership all will go well with our country. If he does not then it will be time to really worry.

To the Democratic Workers of Polk County:

Now that the General Election of November 2nd., has passed into history, I wish to take this opportunity of thanking the party workers who made possible the greatest Democratic victory which has ever occurred in Polk County. With the largest vote cast, and the largest Democratic majority rolled up in the history of the County, we have every reason to be proud of the outcome. This could not have been accomplished, had it not been for the fine calibre of all the candidates on our ticket, and the splendid and unselfish work done by our party workers. So I wish to thank the Democratic Precinct Chairmen and Vice-Chairmen, and their committees, and also the Young Democrats of Polk County, and their Chairman, as well as all those workers who, in more or less prominent positions, gave unstintingly of their time and effort to bring victory to the Democratic standard. The result showed what the Democracy of Polk County can accomplish when factional strife is eliminated, and every one works for the good of the Party. It has been a great personal pleasure to me to have been associated with you all in this historic election, and I appreciate more than I can tell you, your helpfulness in my effort to carry out my duties as your County Chairman. I especially appreciate the fine work done by the women of our Party, without whose help and interest in matters affecting the Party welfare, this great victory could not have been achieved.

Yours very truly,

Carroll P. Rogers, Chairman
Democratic Executive Committee of Polk County.
