

(Est. 1-31-28)

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

(Vol. 21—No. 188)

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor

5c Per Copy

TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, NOV. 8TH, 1948

Weather Friday: High 69, low 52, rain .12; Saturday high 72, low 64, rain 1.12; Sunday high 72, low 48. . . Mrs. James C. Kinloch, field worker for the American Red Cross, has been called to Mississippi to assist the destitute in the area affected by the recent tornado there . . . Tryon Bank & Trust Co., and the Post Offices throughout the nation will be closed all day Thursday, Nov. 11, for Armistice Day. A movement is on foot in Tryon for the stores to close Thursday afternoon during the football game between Tryon and Forest City. It will be "Homecoming" for Tryon and the football backers want a large crowd of homefolk out to see the game and enjoy the spirit of the occasion . . . The Bulletin roses go today to Dwight L. Sawhill, former Westinghouse executive, who is leaving Tryon after a five-year stay here to regain his health. He is having to return to the East to look after business interests. While here Mr. Sawhill contributed as much of his time and energy to civic causes as his health would permit. Having a statistical type of mind, he was thorough in everything he did and made an excellent treasurer of the Congregational

---Continued on Back Page---

CHILD DIES FROM BURNS

Judith Greenway, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Greenway of Tryon Route One, died at 6 a. m., today in Spartanburg General Hospital as the result of severe burns on both arms, abdomen and neck. Her clothing caught on fire Sunday when she was playing with matches. She was admitted at the hospital about noon.

Besides her parents, the deceased is survived by three brothers, Calvin, Thomas S. Jr., and Don; also five sisters, Mrs. Edith Garrison of Spartanburg; Mrs. Annie Lee Whitmire of Inman, and Misses Patsy, Mary and Eula Mae Greenway of Tryon Route 1.

Funeral services will be held on Tuesday at 2 p. m., at the Mill Creek Church of the Brethren in Green Creek section with Rev. C. C. Kurtz, officiating. Burial in church cemetery.

COX CHILD DIES

Betty Jean Cox, two-weeks-old twin daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cox, died at 10 p. m., Sunday night. Funeral services will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock at Ingleside Baptist Church near Landrum. Burial in church cemetery. Besides her parents the deceased is survived by her twin brother, Bobby Jack, and an older brother, Dean.

'MALE ANIMAL' TONIGHT

The Little Theatre group will practice tonight at the Tryon school auditorium instead of the recreation room. "The Male Animal" will be on the stage at 7:30, Miss Elmina Wages announces.