

Mrs. Saumenig Represents Famous Candy Here

The finest candy on special orders to New York, is the latest thing introduced in Tryon by Mrs. H. M. Saumenig (Lida M. Saumenig), who is the special representative in the Carolinas for Ella R. Hawkins' Carella Candies. It is very expensive, but only the best of material go into it because the candy is sold to people who can afford to appreciate its quality. The New Yorker magazine food editor, writes, "It is nothing less than perfection." The New York Times gave a long story on Mrs. Hawkins converted her hobby of making candy into a profitable business because she was so interested in doing it right that demands for it grew until she had to build a studio in which to make it. She personally checks on every nut for its freshness and crispness before it is dipped in chocolate. It is a mail order business and Mrs. Saumenig takes the orders here and sends them to New York.

Family Night Tonight

Tonight is family night at the Tryon Presbyterian church. Thomas Zylstra, sophomore at Bob Jones University, will render a clarinet solo. Rev. Daniel A. Bowers will preach on the subject, "Giving Our All to Christ."

There will be a singing at the Olet Hill Baptist Church Sunday, Nov. 14th, at 8:30 p. m., under the direction of G. L. Jones.
