

Jean Arledge Crowned Queen

Miss Jean Arledge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Arledge, was crowned queen at the Tryon Homecoming celebration at Farmon Field, Thursday, Nov. 11, Armistice Day. She was elected by the Tryon football squad and crowned by Capt. Lea Burrell at half time during the Tryon-Forest City football game before a crowd of approximately 1,000 people.

Runners up in the voting were Misses Betty Wallace, Jetty Gibson and Martha Bishop.

FIRE DESTROYS HOME

The Tryon Fire Department was called out Thursday night between 10 and 11 o'clock to the home of John Tyson, colored, in the colored section above the railway station. The house burned to the ground before the firemen could save it. The fire was believed to have started from the stove flue. Furniture, clothes, and personal belongings were a total loss. There was no insurance.

Another fire at the house of Crayton Harris, colored, was discovered on the fire department's return trip before the second alarm had had time to reach them. This fire was also believed to have started from a stove flue. There was very little damage.

As a result of the fire fighting, Volunteer Fireman Clyde Tharpe was slightly burned, and Fireman Robert Dedmond, was taken to St. Luke's hospital suffering from exhaustion.
