

Connecticut Family Buys John H. Heritage Farm

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest E. Hall, 101 W. Hartford Conn., have purchased the Heritage farmstead and farm in Torrington. Mr. and Mrs. Hall have been operating a grade "A" goat milk dairy in Torrington the past 2 years, and are acquiring half of their herd of registered goats at this south of Torrington herd here. Their new Nubians, French Alpine and Toggenburg goats, many of them are AMGRA award winners which is one of the highest awards obtainable.

Mrs. Hall is a director in the Connecticut Milk Goat Record Association and she and Mr. Hall say they will welcome visitors after their new establishment in their new home. They will arrive shortly after Thanksgiving. Two sons, 8 and 12 and Mrs. Hall's mother constitute the family. Transaction was handled by Richardson & Easton, Realtors.

Basketball Practice Monday

The Town Basketball Team will practice Monday night at the Try-on gym at 7:30.

Green Creek Vs. B. S.

The Green Creek Farmers will play Berlin Springs Monday night at 8 o'clock at the Green Creek gymnasium.

All people living in Landrum and the surrounding communities are invited to attend a house warming, sponsored by the Landrum Civic League, for Dr. and Mrs. Burt M. Walden, Tuesday evening, November 16th, 7:30 to 10 p. m., at the new Walden Clinic. Dr. Burt Walden has come to our community to be associated with his father, Dr. Russell Walden, who has given us many years of faithful service.—Margie Daniel.

Any clothes or supplies for Beatrice Tyson and her family can be left in the room under the Red Bird Shop opposite new post office, or call Miss Nash. Especially needed are things for children, ages one and three.—Adv.

PEARSON'S PEARL THERMOS
See Your Pearson's Fair. Key and Colored are available at the Blue Ridge Weaver, Lower Pearson, Lower Pearson, Antique
Shop—414 1/2 E. 21st St. N.E. 21st St.

HOWES—FARMS BUILDING SITES

All real estate services including rentals.

G. H. BRIDGEWATER & SON
Tel. Office 100 Res. 414-7

RECORDS

We are receiving some of our Christmas Records all along. We have in stock most all popular, hillbilly, classical, spiritual and blues. We'll be glad to order any record or records for Christmas that we don't have in stock.

Some of our artists are:

Bing Crosby
Andrew Sisters
Guy Lombardo
Gene Autry
Doris Day
Tommy Dorsey

BRADSHAW'S RADIO & ELECTRICAL APPLIANCE SERVICE

Refreshing

DRINK
Coca-Cola

Coca-Cola Bottling Company
Norfolk City, N. C.