TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1948

Weather Thursday: High 64, low 46. Winter storm strikes the west in Kansas and Nebraska. This wet week-end may make a difference in football scores. A slippery ball and a slippery field change situations . . . Robert E. Wood, head of Sears, Roebuck, Chicago, is in Asheville inspecting the new store there . . . One of the discouragements of Scoutmasters is lack of interest on the part of parents. A Scoutmaster loves his work and loves boys or he would not give his time so freely to help other people's children, but when father or mother never takes enough interest to attend a Scout gathering such as the Court of Honor, and see the advancement of the Scout as a result of the work of the Scoutmaster, it is a disappointment. If you are not interested in your own children, should you expect other people to take up their time with them? Of course some parents can't go for various reasons, but the boy knows whether they have legitimate excuses, and it is always an inspiration to him, to the Scoutmaster and Committees when dad shows up at the Court of Honor to see the son get his award . . . Citizens of Columbus are much pleased over
